Message: There will be glory after this!

Scripture text: 1 Peter 5:7-11

Key Take-away: We can make it when we are going through, if we focus on what we are going to!

G — (Grow Through the Word)

1. What does Peter tell us to do with our cares, and why can we confidently give them to God? (vs. 7)
2. Verse 10 says, "After you have suffered a little while." How does knowing that suffering is temporary give us hope when we are going through difficult seasons? (vs. 10)
3. What four things does Peter say the God of all grace will do for us after we have suffered a little while? (vs. 10)

P — (Prayerfully Ponder)

What are you going through right now that requires you to depend more fully on the God of all grace? Instead of asking only, "When will this be over?" consider asking, "What grace is God giving me to make it through?"

Complete this statement:
"In this season of _____, I need God's grace to help me _____."

S — (Serve)

Someone around you may be struggling to see beyond what they are going through. This week, identify one person who needs encouragement and become an expression of God's grace to them.

Call them, pray with them, send them a Scripture, meet a practical need, or simply remind them: The God of all grace is with you in this, and there will be glory "after this."

Prayer
Dear Lord, thank You for being the God of all grace. When life becomes heavy, help me cast every care upon You because You care for me. When I am going through difficult seasons, remind me that suffering is only for a little while, but Your grace is sufficient for every moment. Give me grace for the pain, grace for the pressure, grace for the waiting, and grace to keep standing. When I cannot see beyond what I am going through, help me trust You for what comes after this. Restore me, establish me, strengthen me, and settle me. Use me to extend Your grace to someone else who is going through. I believe that suffering will not have the final word; there will be glory after this!

In Jesus' name, Amen.
